Dear Bill:

All I can add to your editorial page piece in the April 22 Wall Street Journal is...Amen and well done.

I have already passed it on to my press secretary and chief speech writer. I will give you due credit where quoted. It was a thoughtful, straightforward addressing of the issues. It's time to stand up for America and for freedom.

I know how busy you are and what little time you have to share with your wife, but if you ever anticipate a little break in your schedule, I would love to have the opportunity to sit down over a leisurely dinner to discuss some concerns. Should Mrs. Casey be out-of-town and you need a dinner companion, please give me a call, even if it's at short notice.

Kindest personal regards.

Cordially,

George
